232nd Pl. PTA Begins Year

Board members of the 232nd Pl. School PTA were hostesses at the first association meeting held at the school recently. Miss Ethel Cronley, principal, introduced the faculty, which was followed by the introduction of board members by the president, Mrs. Fred Bassett.

Mrs. Eric Heinzman, secondary chairman and speaker with youth services, gave a speech following the Community Chest film, "The Endless Day."

A report on the membership drive was given by Mrs. Paul Whipp, the membership chairman. There will be a movie, "Scottie Finds a Home," as a prize for the rooms with the highest percentage, including upper and lower grades.

Three new chairmen were ratified at the last board meeting. They were Mmes. William Lee, magazine; Robert Crow, health; and Roderick Ducharme, ways and means. The group was advised that Mrs. Frances Meehan had resigned as Community Chest chairman.

Popcorn will be sold each Wednesday at the school during dismissal time. Some of the proceeds will go into the PTA's regular fund.

Roderick Ducharme announced the Halloween carnival to be held Oct. 29, from 4:30 to 8:30 p.m. The festivities will include games, refreshments and movies.
